Insurance Tricks.

[From the Chicago Tribune.]

An insurance company is very much like an egg; it is either good or bad; it is fraudulent and dishonest not to pay its obligations; if it is insolvent it should not be permitted to do business an hour. It is a fraud for an insurance company which cannot pay its losses in full to advertise for new business. Every such company should be shut up by injunction or the police just as promptly as any other gift concert, or Peter Funk institution for swindling the public.

Still another class of companies, professing to be able and willing to pay, have sent hither a corps of adjusters, whose special business it is to browbeat the impoverished policy holders, and to defraud them of as much of their claims as possible. Every possible and imaginable quibble is adopted. The most captious objections, the most far-fetched technicalities, and evasion, that would disgrace the lowest pettifogger, are made pretexts for refusing or delaying payment of losses. These companies know the necessities of the insured and rightly assume that the man who has nothing in the world but his insurance policy, must sooner or later accept what is offered him or starve. But these men are overdoing the business, and the first thing they will feel be the institution of suits in the federal courts, and such an exposure of the frauds and tricks of insurance, followed by summary judgments, as will bring down upon them the contempt and indignation of the country. Another evasion to which some of these companies are resorting is the postponement of payment for sixty days after proof of loss. The assertion is that the insured "have no lawful claim to any portion of the insurance until after sixty days from proof of loss." This is not true. The debt accrues at the instant of loss, and is payable upon proof thereof. Any company can pay, as all respectable and solvent companies do pay, as soon as proof of loss is made. The sixty day pretext is another item in the general system to avoid payment. The company that is really solvent and able to pay its debts, and is honest, does not plead the sixty days' delay. That is only resorted to by companies who either are not able to pay, or who are using that delay to compel the suffering losers to sell their claims for less than what they are worth. The company that offers to waive the 60 day clause, and pay at a discount of one, or two, or five per cent. a month, confesses that it has the money, and withholds it to plunder its victimized customers. Such companies are unworthy to be included among respectable and honest insurance companies, and should not be allowed to transact business anywhere.

In honorable contrast with these institutions are the companies which are paying losses as fast as proofs of loss are filed, and ascertained to be correct. They serve to show what it always would be, if the business were conducted upon principles of honesty, fairness, and justice.

OREGON.

T. J. Thorp has been elected Mayor of Scio, and E. N. Tandy Mayor of Harrisburg.

R. G. Head has opened a job printing office at Scio, and hopes to get the patronage of "The Forks."

Some of the Oregon papers are still advertising lotteries. Which is an offense against the laws of the State.

Linn county contains three incorporated "cities" and in this particular is ahead of any other county in the State.

Wm. Shepherd has been convicted of the robbery at Hanna's store, at Gervais, and has been sentenced to the penitentiary for three years.

The project of starting a newspaper at Hillsboro has been given up. Messrs. Snyder and Boon who proposed the enterprise have united with Mr. Handley in the publication of the West Side.

NEWS CONDENSATIONS.

Three hundred dollars in gold coin was used in gilding the ball on the dome of the California capital.

The average cost of beef furnished to the army throughout the country is 11.09 cents per pound. In Oregon the cost was below this average.

The Washington correspondent of the Boston Advertiser says it is admitted on all sides that the income tax law will be repealed the coming winter.

The total disbursements to the army during the past year were $18,514,073, of which $2,683,172 was paid in the shape of back pay and bounty to volunteers.

Commissary-General Eaton reports that the army has been well fed during the past year at an average cost of 19.56 per cent. per ration, a decrease of 1.07 cents from the cost of the previous year.

The report of the Legislative Committee of Wyoming Territory on the condition of the Treasurer's accounts for the past two years shows a worse state of affairs than exist in New York. Which is consolation for Tammany.

Among the new schemes of that gigantic corporation known as the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has closed a contract with the International Steamship Company for a line of steamers between Philadelphia and Antwerp.

A few days ago human remains were found in the basement of the Tribune building at Chicago. They were identified as the body of J. B. Stubbs, reporter on the Tribune. He was last seen near the building on the morning of the fire, and had not been heard from since.

The Paper Trade.

The New York Commercial Journal gives the following interesting article on the paper trade:

Within the last ten years great changes have taken place in the manufacture of paper. Previous to that time cotton and woolen rags were the chief material used, but the supply of cotton having been cut off by the war, rags became scarce and expensive, and paper manufacturers looked anxiously about for a substitute. In the year 1857 a patent was taken out for the manufacture of paper from straw, but rags were at that time cheap, and notwithstanding the fact that the value of the discovery was demonstrated, manufacturers refused to recognize its advantages. A few years later, however, when rags became scarce, straw came into general use. Since then straw paper has become very popular, and now most all the paper made, except the very finest qualities, are more or less formed of it. Its chief excellence is its cheapness, although the manufacture of straw paper is a more expensive operation than the manufacture of paper from rags. The paper pulp must be pure fibrine matter, and rags answer this requisite exactly, with the exception of such matter as collect upon them while used as wearing apparel. This, however, is readily removed by bleaching. Straw, however, is encased in a hard coating of silicate, which must be removed by the action of strong alkalies before its reduction to pulp. Various kinds of woods have recently been found of value in the manufacture of pulp. Poplar is by far the best, but the fibre of all wood pulp is so short that it possesses but very little cohesive power, and can only be used profitably when mixed with rags. Waste paper is now used in the manufacture of paper much more than formerly, and, combined with wood, straw or rags is both economical and useful. Immense quantities of waste paper are daily collected in the streets, and in this city alone there are four hundred shops where it is bought, thus giving employment to hundreds of persons. The finest quality of paper manufactured is what is known as bank-note paper. Only a small quantity of this is made for ordinary commercial purposes, and that intended for the use of the Government is manufactured under its own supervision.

The different names given to the various sizes of paper originated chiefly from emblems which in the early days of paper manufacture were fixed in the water mark; thus "foolscap" derives its name from a fool's cap and bells which were represented on the first issue of paper of that size; "post," from a postman's horn, and "pot," from the appearance of a pewter pot.

During the war the price of paper advanced rapidly and the commoner grades could be imported much cheaper than they could be manufactured here. Since then, however, the market has declined to the old rate, and now the only foreign paper brought here is an inferior quality of printing paper from Belgium, and fancy writing papers from France and England. There are at present 1,200 paper mills in the United States, which produce annually about 500,000 pounds of paper, but the supply is never equal to the demand. During the past week 5,917 packages of rags were received at this port, making 90,971 packages received since the first of the year. For the same period last year 86,391 packages were received.

The Albany (New York) Journal is of opinion that that State can be made permanently Republican by securing an honest count and a full Republican vote. Foremost among the new measures of reform to be adopted by the next Legislature, continues the Journal, "will be a careful, well considered, stringent law for the protection of the ballot-box."

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

New York Dispatches.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—At a meeting of the Committee of Commerce yesterday, A. A. Low submitted a letter from Olyphant & Co., of China, regarding outrages committed on Chinamen at Los Angeles, California, with extracts from certain newspapers on the same subject.

The letter suggested that such outrages will tend to render the lives and property of all Americans unsafe. Low hoped the Chamber of Commerce would take action in the matter. The Chinese in California have been subjected from the first to attacks from the lower classes in that State. There is antagonism between the labor of Chinamen and white men, and this letter sets forth the danger that constantly besets Chinese. He thought it worthy of action on the part of our Government, that the character of the nation in its treatment of these people may be sustained. The letter and accompanying newspaper accounts were referred to a standing committee, with instructions to report thereon.

Yesterday a gang of working men of Tweed's Department of public works visited the contractor's office and threatened an official with violence, if their claims were not paid.

A motion of expulsion of Mayor Hall from the Union Club was carried in committee having charge of it, by a vote of 9 to 2. The question will be finally decided by a full club.

From Chicago.

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—The weather is again cold, interfering somewhat with building. The Times of this morning reappears in its old form, printed on a Bullock press, the first of the kind ever used in this city.

Fire at Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 8.—The rolling mill of McKnight & Bermingham, with offices, etc., were burned this morning. Loss $120,000; fully insured.

Miscellaneous Eastern News.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—An unfounded rumor, gotten up to affect the market, was circulated on Wall street this morning, to the effect that the Prince of Wales was dead. There is a panic in the London market. Gold is strong at 110 to 112.

The Times' Washington dispatch says Fish's resignation was placed in the hands of the President on Tuesday.

The Herald's dispatch says that Senator Sumner is preparing an active fight to abolish the Internal Revenue Commissionership. He will be sustained by a majority of leading senators.

A Washington special says that Sumner will not accept the Chairmanship of the Committee on Elections, assigned him by the Senate caucus.

Sumner's bill to abolish the office of Internal Revenue Commissioner is somewhat anticipated by the action of the Senate Finance Committee. The proposition has been already discussed.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

Critical Condition of the Prince of Wales.

LONDON, Dec. 8, 2 P. M.—A report in circulation that the Prince is worse is given under reserve by the central agency of the Press Association, which is considered a trustworthy source of news. All the members of the Royal Family were telegraphically summoned by the Queen, and the Princess Louise left at 3 P. M. It is rumored on the streets that the Prince of Wales is dead, but it is doubted. A London paper says the Prince is sinking fast. Congestion of the lungs has set in. There are no hopes of his life. The Queen is now with the Prince. The city is full of alarming rumors with regard to his case. Newspaper extras are issued, giving all kinds of reports. The effect on business is depressing. Stocks and all financial quotations show a decline. Consols have fallen ½ per cent.

The latest official bulletin of the Prince's condition says the Prince continues in a precarious state. Exacerbation began last night attended by great prostration. The first bulletin this morning reports that the Prince had a very unquiet night. This morning there is a considerable increase of fever. Official news and various rumors, some exaggerated, cause alarm.

A Times' New York special says an order was received from Washington yesterday by the purser of the steamer Missouri, about to sail for Havana, to unload all American newspapers sent abroad, but finally the order was disobeyed.

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 8.—The auction sale of tide lands closed at noon. The sale did not extend beyond the delinquent list of June and September, 1869, and covered lands lying along the shore south of San Francisco down to the county line. On Monday the sale of lands in Alameda will be made. The sum of all the bids to-day will not exceed ten thousand dollars.

The jury in the Hill-Hawley libel case returned a verdict of $500 for the plaintiff.

The trial of J. Brokaw for the murder of Robt. Evans will probably be commenced in the 15th District Court on Monday next.

The man who fell dead yesterday has been identified as James Downing, second steward of the Idaho.

PICKINGS.

The Chicago Tribune suggests as a neat and appropriate monument of the conflagration a pyramid of the worthless fire and burglar proof safes scattered through the burnt district.

Illinois is said to have ten times as much fence as Germany, and Duchess county, New York, more than all France. A narrow path divides farms in France, Germany and Holland.

An exchange says: "The freight bill for the tea destroyed in Boston harbor in December, 1773, was paid a few days ago by the East India Company of London, to whom it belonged. The money went to a Nantucket family."

On a ten dollar bill recently received by a New England bank was written: "This is the last of $10,000 left me by a fond and devoted father—all spent in liquor and other dissipation." The old, old story.

Stephen Pearl Andrews says that "the Absolutoid and Abstractoid Elementismus of Being echoes or reappears by Analogy, within the Relatoid and Concretoid Elaborismus." Were it not for this lucid statement the proposition might seem confusing.

The definition of "wedding" in the fashionable vocabulary means a grand crisis of clothes; "bride," a peg on which finery of all kinds is hung; "bridegroom," a sober black object following the bride of no account in particular, and yet without whom there would be no fuss, and the fun could not go on.

POLITICAL NOTES.

A correspondent of the Oregon City Enterprise asks: "Is it a crime to have been a life long Democrat?" This is one of those questions about which there will always be a good deal of difference of opinion.

The Vincennes (Indiana) Sun says the Ligonier Banner takes kindly to the Cincinnati Enquirer's newest departure, and advises it to go slow, inasmuch as the people are not ready yet to convert the White House into a railroad depot.

"The proposed coalition of the Democratic party with anti-administration and Conservative Republicans," says a Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Gazette, "is the principal topic among politicians" arriving in the National Capital, and that "the newest phase of it is a combination for the nomination of Mr. Sumner for President."

In the year 1870 there was produced in the United States about 2,000,000 tons of pig iron, at a cost of about $66,000,000. This required the labor for that year of not less than 165,000 operatives, and furnished means of subsistence to probably 700,000 men, women and children. Now, suppose instead of manufacturing this pig iron ourselves, we had sent the money out of the country and bought the iron in Great Britain or upon the continent of Europe, what would have been the result? The country would be just that much the poorer, because where the money is spent at home, in the employment of laborers in our own midst, it remains to enrich all classes of community while if sent abroad, it enriches the foreigner at our expense.

INDUSTRIAL NOTICES.

There are four steamers being built at Buffalo for lake service to be completed next season. Two will be launched in April and the others in July. When completed they will be the largest and most valuable vessels afloat on the lakes, having an aggregate freight capacity for 200,000 bushels of wheat. Each steamer with machinery and all complete will cost about $175,000, and will have a freight capacity for 2,000 tons. At several points along the great chain of lakes and rivers, iron steamers and barges have been contracted for, and in a few years there are indications that our inland carrying trade will be placed upon a much better basis than ever before. Iron vessels are everywhere crowding wooden vessels to the wall.

An exchange gravely inquires, "How can we build up our Arctic fleet?" as though it were a difficult matter to replace thirty-three small ships and barks, most of which had become valueless with age! The work of placing the whaling fleet on at least as good a footing as it was before the Arctic disaster, will not be a difficult one, if depends wholly upon the question of whether it will pay to build it up or not. For several years, or since the entrance into commerce of petroleum, the whaling interest has been in a condition of decay. The fleet is made up, for the most part, of vessels which had become unserviceable in other departments of commerce. Of these, there are a vast number to be had at low prices. Thus, while the Arctic disaster is a severe one, there will be no difficulty in replacing the fleet from the great number of second hand vessels now out of profitable employment in various parts of the country, if it shall be deemed necessary to replace it.

DR. ABORN ON NASAL CATARRH.

*This is a chronic affection of the mucous membrane of the nostrils or the throat, originating in irritation or in*flammation, and attended by more or less discharge. It is one of the most common, most disgusting, and finally, most destructive of diseases incident to the variable climate of our northern latitude.

In its early stages catarrh often fails to attract the patient's attention, so insidious is its approach. This is an unfortunate circumstance, because the most favorable period for treatment is thus unimproved, and because of the peculiar disposition of this disease to extend upward to the frontal [illegible], backward through the Eustachian tubes to the middle ears, and down through the larynx, trachea, and bronchia, to the air-cells of the lungs.

The discharge from the affected part is at first a clear fluid, which may escape observation, unless it chance to be of a more [illegible] acrid [illegible]. As time goes on this gives place to a fluid that is thicker, and of a yellowish green color, and still later this may be succeeded by thick flakes or scales.

In all the [illegible] stages the discharges are generally of an offensive odor, causing great annoyance to one's friends and to the patient himself, while his sense of smell remains. This annoyance from the odor becomes almost beyond endurance, when, as sometimes happens, the delicate bones of the nose become diseased.

Some cases early assume the character of Dry Catarrh. There is then a feeling of [illegible], heat and stiffness in the nostrils, which are often (one or both of them) closed by thickening of the mucous membrane, and thus a difficulty of breathing becomes a prominent symptom.

On examining the nostrils in Chronic Catarrh, with instruments specially adapted to that purpose, we find their lining membrane thickened and of a deeper color than in health. There are seen little points of ulceration, upon which the secretion becomes hardened and forms crusts. When these are picked off the diseased surface is irritated, and frequently bleeds profusely.

In each case of Catarrh the prominent symptoms are determined by the direction in which the disease extends. If this be upward there may be pain over and between the eyes, [illegible] of the [illegible] ducts, causing the tears to flow over the cheeks, and possibly opthalmia—inflammation of the eyes. If backward, there will be thickening of the walls of the Eustachian tubes, and consequent tendency to their obstruction, inflammation of the middle ear, [illegible] in the [illegible] impairment of hearing. When the extension is downward, the voice becomes hoarse or whispering and [illegible] cough come on with [illegible] and emaciation, to be followed too often by Consumption and Death.

In cases where the bones of the nose are diseased, not only is the offensiveness of the breath increased, but there is a liability to serious personal deformities, among which are [illegible] of the [illegible].

The swallowing of catarrhal secretions deranges the functions of the stomach, causing indigestion and loss of appetite. Debility, paleness, lassitude, headache and disturbance of mind soon follow. In some instances the mental affection is one of irritability, the patient being unduly annoyed by all the little perplexities of life. In others, the prominent feeling is that of the melancholy or depression of spirits, when the invalid can see no hope for himself or his affairs.

Allusion has been made to the extension of Catarrh by continuity of surface along the natural air passages to the substance of the lungs, thus causing Consumption and Death. In this connection it should also be remembered that the air which enters the lungs of a [illegible] patient is, every breath of it, poisoned by exhalations from the foul secretions of the diseased surface. By such air the blood cannot be properly purified and made fit to impart healthy vigor in its unending circuit to all and every part of the animal mechanism. One would suppose that this consideration alone would be sufficient to induce every person thus afflicted to make early application for relief.

The treatment of Catarrh is in part constitutional, whereby the energies of the whole system are called to aid in expelling the disease; [illegible]. It is in part local, whereby the discharge is made less offensive, diminished and finally arrested, and whereby the ulcerated surface is healed and restored to its normal condition.

By means of new and ingenious apparatus, Dr. Aborn is able in Catarrh and all other affections of the respiratory organs, to apply his remedies directly to the desired localities. Treatment is thus made more efficient as well as less disagreeable. In many cases the first application of the topical treatment will change the character of the disease and materially purify the breath.

SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 9, 1871

Libels Refuted.

Fortunately honest men's reputations cannot be blackened by every person of the baser sort who chooses to let loose an irresponsible and ribald tongue. When, therefore the Salem Mercury, a paper which appears to be appropriately named after the god of trickery and lies, says that "the grand jury of Multnomah county recently made a report to the Circuit Court of that county implicating the Sheriff and County Clerk in acts of official malfeasance whereby the tax-payers were defrauded out of thousands of dollars," its success in injuring honest officials is far behind its malice in attacking them. In the first place it is proper to say that a document purporting to be a report by the grand jury of Multnomah county has been put in circulation, which there is the best authority for saying was never adopted by the grand jury, but which was written, accepted and signed by only one member of that body. In that document it is stated that the sum of $1,500 per annum is given to the Sheriff for extra expenses on account of jailor and janitor, and $600 per annum is given to the County Clerk for keeping the books of the county, which expenditures are characterized as "profligate and unwarranted." This is the basis of the statement by the Salem paper that the Sheriff and Clerk of this county have been "implicated in acts of official malfeasance, whereby the tax-payers have been defrauded out of thousands of dollars."

The Sheriff and Clerk of this county receive the very same compensation from the county that has been paid for years to their predecessors. The last Sheriff of this county (who was a Democrat), received this very same amount of $1,500 a year to pay his jailor, and the last County Clerk (who was a Democrat), received this same sum of $600 for keeping the county books. But this spurious document, put forth in the name of the grand jury of the county, treats these expenditures as if they were swindles, devised by the present officials, and an outrage on the taxpayers.

In the same document it is stated that the expenses of the county for the year ending July 6, 1871, were $54,475 32 against $45,592 24 for the year previous, and the inference which it is intended that the reader shall draw is that the difference between these sums, which amounts to $8,883 08 has been needlessly expended or profligately squandered by the present county administration. Now an examination of the record shows that nearly the whole of this additional cost over last year was incurred in the administration of justice, in the keeping of prisoners and paupers and in the construction or repair of roads and bridges. That there are more criminals and paupers, and more actions at law now than formerly, need not be considered surprising, for the population and general business of the city and county are increasing very rapidly. And as for making roads and building bridges, we know of no better purpose to which a reasonable portion of the revenues of the county can be devoted.

It would be safe to presume that as the population, wealth and business of the county increase, its expenses will show some increase also; that next year the county expenditures will be larger than they were last, and that ten years hence the county government cannot be carried on with the amount of money that suffices now. We do not undertake to say that there are no particulars in which some retrenchment would now be impossible; for undoubtedly the county could turn its paupers out of doors, refuse to make farther improvement of highways, or resolve to cut off the supply of water from the county buildings. But the report that was not made by the grand jury recommends none of these things. It may be that no pay should be allowed for a jailor. If so, the county might have realized something by making this discovery some years ago.

Laboring in their Vocation.

The beggar litigant press of Oregon including such papers as the Albany Democrat, Portland Herald, etc., consider themselves bound to champion Gov. Grover, and to give him adulatory articles in return for the patronage which he furnishes them under the swindling litigant law. Hence their columns are constantly full of fulsome flattery. In this way Gov. Grover has managed to secure most of the press of his party in his interest for the next position to which he aspires. His patronage, as the Jacksonville Times, a Democratic organ, intimates, has been sufficient to buy up all these little creatures, and they disgust their party daily with laudations of Grover, which all intelligent, active, working Democrats know are undeserved. But this flattery is part of the compact, and Democratic readers must make up their minds to witness the cringing, abject servility of their organs till after the next election. Meanwhile there is not a firm, outspoken, working Democrat in the State who does not despise Grover for a trimming, balancing, non-committal self-seeker, who never exerts himself for his party except when he expects individually to profit by it. The organs whose support he has bought with money stolen from the people under an iniquitous law, may, however, be expected to blow for him in a lively manner. That is their vocation.

A late report of the Department of Agriculture gives some account of the English method of steam plowing. Two engines are used. One takes its position at one side of the field, and the other stands opposite. The gang-plow, with eight shares, four pointing each way, is placed between and attached to each engine with a wire rope. One engine winds up the rope and pulls the plow towards it. Then it slacks the rope, and without turning round the plow is pulled back by the other engine. The idle engine meantime moves forward the length of the furrow, and prepares for the next pull. Thus alternating the land is plowed to a depth of twenty inches at the rate of ten acres a day of ten hours. The cost is less than one half that of horse power. These plows are too cumbersome and expensive to come into general use. What is wanted in this country is a practical steam plow at moderate cost. Such a machine would prove a great boon to the farming interest.

California papers say that excessive charges, amounting to gross frauds, have been perpetrated in the execution of the State printing, and demand that no more jobs of this kind shall be allowed. The execution of the State printing at the last session of the Legislature of Oregon was a huge job which was so handled as to cost the Treasury some thousands of dollars more than it ought.

The Boston Herald nominates General Sherman as Democratic candidate for President.

The Flood of Twaddle about Alexis.

In the enormous and ceaseless flood of twaddle about Prince Alexis that will be preserved in countless newspaper files, there is nothing more grandly absurd than the following "dispatch" from Washington to the New York Herald, upon which that paper bases an editorial article a column in length:

"I have just obtained reliable information of the real object of the visit of the Grand Duke Alexis to the United States. The Grand Duke, although young, bears a high reputation at home as an educated statesman and accomplished diplomat. He is usually reticent, and has a thorough knowledge of the policy of the Russian empire. He is charged with a mission of an important and delicate charge, being nothing less than a proposal for an alliance offensive and defensive between the two nations. The Russian government believes that President Grant will favor such an alliance. A European war is apprehended, and Russia believes that, with the active aid of the United States, or assisted by an active privateering fleet under Russian letters of marque, she could defy all Europe. Duke Alexis is preparing to offer an alliance to President Grant, comprehensive in its character, and looking to further operations on a gigantic scale in Asia, as well as co-operation in present anticipated complications.

The Illinois Legislature has taken up the subject of abolishing Canada thistles. A bill has been introduced providing for a Canada Thistle Commissioner in each town, whose buisness shall be to extirpate them in the roads, and when he finds them growing upon any person's land to place the infected spot in quarantine immediately, and devise measures to prevent the spread of this botanical Ku Klux. The Chicago Tribune say this is a matter of very serious moment to the farmers of the State, and may involve thousands, even millions of dollars if the thistle is allowed to go on sowing itself unchecked.

It is well remembered that the following extract from a Chicago paper involves a singular financial paradox. "There is one remarkable fact developed by the Chicago fire, which tends to show how utterly all preconceived opinions of prudence and policy fall in the presence of great disasters. Those firms who had all their capital in their business, and sold only for cash, are the heaviest and most hopeless losers, while those who had outside investments, and sold largely on credit, are quietly collecting their debts and realizing their assets elsewhere."

Three Territories, Utah, Colorado and New Mexico, are now seeking admission as States. The new Territory of Pembina is also proposed. This Territory is to be carved out of a portion of Dakota. Still another new Territory to be called Oklahoma is proposed. This, however, is rather a new name than a new Territory, as a reorganization of the Indian Territory is proposed under this name.

The Russian Government.

The presence of the Russian Grand Duke in the United States has stimulated curiosity a good deal in regard to everything pertaining to Russia. The following article on the Russian Government, from the New York Tribune, will be found interesting:

The Government of Russia is an absolute hereditary monarchy. The whole legislative, executive and judicial power is united in the Emperor, whose will alone is law. There are, however, certain rules of government which the sovereigns of the house of Holstein Gottorp have acknowledged as binding. The principal of these are the rules regulating the succession to the throne, and ordaining that every sovereign of Russia, with his consort and children, must be a member of the orthodox Greek Church. The princess and princesses of the Imperial house, according to a decree of Alexander I., must obtain the consent of the Emperor to any marriage they contract; otherwise the issue of such union cannot inherit the throne. By an ancient law of Russia, the heir-apparent is held to be of age at the end of the sixteenth year, and the other members of the reigning family with the completed eighteenth year.

The administration of the empire is entrusted to four great Boards or Councils, possessing separate functions, but centering in the "Private Cabinet of the Emperor." The first of these is the Council of the Empire, consisting of a president and an unlimited number of members, appointed by the Emperor. The Council is divided into five departments. The second is the Directing Senate, formed of persons of high rank or who fill high positions. This body is the High Court of Justice for the Empire, controlling all inferior tribunals and examining into the state of the public revenue and expenditure. It has power to inquire into public abuses, to appoint to a great variety of offices, and to make remonstrances to the Emperor. The third college is the Holy Synod, to which is committed the superintendence of the religious affairs of the Empire. It is composed of the principal dignitaries of the Church. The fourth board is the Council of Ministers, is composed of the Ministers charged with the several executive branches of the administration.

The Private Cabinet of the Emperor, in which body centers the whole executive authority of the Empire, is divided into four sections. The local administration of the Empire differs in different provinces, government having always allowed conquered or annexed countries to preserve their own laws and institutions, except in so far as they were hostile to the general Constitution of the Empire. The Grand Duchy of Finland has a special and partially independent form of government; and the provinces wrested from Sweden by Peter the Great, Courland, and those formerly belonging to Poland, have peculiar institutions and privileges, which, however, have latterly been much modified.

"INDIANECDOTE."—There was a mixed company, on a certain occasion, on board a steamer which was passing the port of Monterey, California. One of the passengers exhibited his geography and history—or rather the place where they ought to have been—by observing:

"Thar's whar Gen. Taylor gin the Mexicans fits."

Monterey suggested Buena Vista, on which another person incautiously remarked:

"Thar's whar the Indianians run away."

This was of course contradicted by an Indianian, who arrived. "They only fell back to get better fighting ground." That in return was controverted. A hot discussion sprang up, which was growing personal, and likely to be a rehearsal of the great fight, when a friend interfered as pacificator, by saying that he did not want to be held responsible for what he was about to say, and he thought it would settle the whole difficulty.

That looked encouraging; but when he commenced by saying that "he heard they were liars as well as cowards," it did not look that way; it looked very much like a free State, free fight.

"Now just hold on till I tell you what I heard," expostulated the rash friend. "When the Indianians were running away, or falling back, as may be, a fellow was making back tracks as fast as his horse could carry him. Another fellow, lying on the ground and making as much noise as his lungs would allow, called to the horseman, "For God's sake, take me up and save me from massacre!"

"Where are you hit?"

"Only in the leg."

"He was benevolently taken up behind the horseman, and on they went until they reached a surgeon's quarters. Pulling up, the rider told that functionary:

"'Here, doctor, here's a case for you.'

"Scalpel looked up from his bloody work, but inquired with evident indignation:

"'What did you bring him here for?'

"'For you to attend to him, of course!'

"'Go and get his head, then!'

"The rider turned and saw a bleeding headless trunk. His astonishment was only equaled by his indignation.

"'The lying son of a gun,' he bawled out; 'he told me he was only hit in the leg!'"

The friend's explanation proved satisfactory, and all hands laughed.—Galaxy for December.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 8.—There are 50 inmates in the county jail. In the District Court this forenoon, in the matter of the application of certain parties indicted by the grand jury as accessories to murder, have submitted their cases on the testimony adduced before the said grand jury, by consent of counsel for the parties. These cases are those also indicted for riot. The District Attorney stated that this course was taken because the jail has not the capacity to contain all the persons now there, and for whom warrants of arrest have been issued, and because of the enormous expense to the county. He said he did not intend this action to be precedent for any future case. Three supposed incendiary fires have occurred in this city within one month. In each case hay was set on fire and the destruction of other property threatened. The Common Council last night increased the appropriation towards the purchase of a steam fire engine. Weather cool and cloudy.

CORINNE, Dec. 8.—Advices from Rawlings, 2 P. M., state that four passenger trains are expected from the East to-night. Three of them will reach here about 9 P. M.

WYOMING

MEDICINE, Dec. 8, 4 P. M.—The road between Laramie and Cheyenne is open now and passenger trains will reach Laramie shortly.

The Walla Walla Railroad.

Ross' Real Estate Gazette of Walla Walla contains the following:

The Walla Walla and Columbia River Railroad Company have finished surveying and locating their route. They are now ready to receive bids for grading the road bed. A part of the machinery for a saw-mill, to be erected at Wallula, is now on the ground, and the company expect to have the road in running order at an early day. It is expected that, if the weather will permit, a considerable amount of the grading will be done this winter, and that the road will be pushed forward to completion within the next year. At present our future looks brighter than our past has been, as the "one thing needful" is railroad communication between this valley and the outside world.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.—The truth remains that the present Democratic party which preached State sovereignty and protected slavery, which resisted emancipation, equal rights and equal suffrage; which declared for surrender during the war, and for repudiation after it; whose chief leaders in the Souther Statesn are the bitterest of unrepentant rebels, and whose most powerful organization in the country—that of Tammany Hall—is identified with the most monstrous corruption in our history, and, as yet able to control the State Convention of its party. This is the Democratic party with which the country deals to-day, and it is because just such a party has justly forfeited the confidence of intelligent and honest men that it is so generally deserted and condemned.

The new Departure was merely an effort of the Democratic party to escape its own identity, and to become a new party. But the sinner does not become a saint by changing his shirt. If the results of the war were to be accepted, and the policy of the settlement maintained, the question between the two parties becomes one of administration merely. Which would be more faithful to the settlements, and the more economical and honest? Was it probable that the party of slavery and the rebellion, of repudiation, of the ecclesiastical hostility to the public school system, and of the Tammany frauds? That is the question the country is answering at every election, and to which it is preparing its answer for 1872.—Harper's Weekly.

Failure of many of the most eminent physicians of San Francisco to cure a case of Rheumatism.—Triumph of the Unk Weed Remedy.

SAN JOSE, August 25, 1871.

DR. A. M. LORYEA & Co.: This is to certify that I, the undersigned, have been sick for five years with Rheumatism, and have been treated for many ailments. My trouble has been weakness of the back and side, and wandering pains all over my body. I have been treated by many of the most eminent physicians of San Francisco, as well as of this city, but without any effect. At last I was induced to try your UNK WEED REMEDY, and the result was that after taking the contents of two bottles I found myself perfectly cured. To all afflicted with Rheumatism, I say TRY THE UNK WEED REMEDY, and you will be cured. Yours truly,

JAMES AHERN, San Jose.

Bold Opinions Truly Expressed.

POPULARITY IS NOT ALWAYS A proof of desert. Every newspaper man knows that. Many articles are engineered into temporary popularity that have no intrinsic merit whatever. It is an easy thing to make sweeping assertions and sow them broadcast in the columns of the public press. But there is a class of experienced and thoughtful birds not to be caught with chaff; like Captain Cuttle, they want "an opinion as is an opinion," in other words, the judgment of competent and disinterested authority, as a basis for their own.

Several of these cautious individuals having done us the honor to invite an expression of opinion in these columns on the properties of the much talked of Tonic known as PLANTATION BITTERS; we have taken the pains to obtain from a distinguished physician whose ability and integrity of purpose no one will venture to question, what may fairly be deemed a conclusive answer to the questions of our correspondents. Dr. Elias Kennedy Whitmarsh, as a surgeon, pathologist and chemist, has few superiors west of the Alleghanies, and the following conversation which occurred a few days ago between that gentleman and one of our staff, is offered, without comment, for the information of "whom it may concern:"

REPORTER.—Have you any objection to state your views in relation to a medicinal preparation which has obtained great celebrity in this country? The object is to ascertain whether the reputation is deserved or not.

DR. WHITMARSH.—If I know anything about the article, I'll tell you what I think of it. How is it named?

REPORTER.—PLANTATION BITTERS.

DR. WHITMARSH.—Well, it is a wholesome vegetable tonic.

REPORTER.—Anything else?

WHITMARSH.—Yes, it has a mild aperient property, and produces a salutary effect upon the liver when that organ is diseased.

REPORTER.—It contains alcohol I understand—Santa Croix Rum.

DR. WHITMARSH.—Of course it contains a diffusive stimulant. If it did not its medicinal ingredients would be comparatively inert. They are rendered operative by the alcoholic principle.

REPORTER.—Supposing that theory to be correct, is Santa Croix Rum a good article for that purpose?

DR. WHITMARSH.—The best I think. It is more nutricious and far less exciting than the spirits made from grapes or grain.

REPORTER.—But are stimulants really necessary at all in medical treatment?

DR. WHITMARSH.—Sir, if you had ever practiced medicine you would not ask the question. They are an essential portion of the materia medica. Every intelligent member of the profession knows that. The physician who denies it is either a hypocrite or a fool.

REPORTER.—Do you consider a medicated stimulant like the PLANTATION BITTERS preferable to simple alcohol? In other words, would the Santa Croix Rum be as useful without the other ingredients as with them?

DR. WHITMARSH.—Certainly not. Among those ingredients are Extract of Dandelion, one of the finest antibilious medicines I know of; Calisaya Bark, of all tonics the best; and Chamomile, an admirable stomachic. The remedial powers of these curatives is increased probably tenfold by the nutritive stimulant with which they are incorporated.

REPORTER.—You seem to have a high opinion of the Bitters.

DR. WHITMARSH.—I simply state facts, sir. You must draw your own conclusions.

REPORTER.—May I ask if you ever prescribed PLANTATION BITTERS for your patients?

DR. WHITMARSH.—I do, frequently. All that I have said to you is founded on my own experience: I never make positive statements on unsubstantial grounds.

REPORTER.—I am sure of that. Excuse me for having trespassed so long on your valuable time. Good evening.

We presume the correspondents who have addressed us on the subject of PLANTATION BITTERS, will consider their questions satisfactorily answered by the remarks of Dr. Whitmarsh.

CITY.

A "LANDMARK."—Within the last few days an old frame house, belonging to H. L. Pittock, has been removed from the southeast corner of Stark and Front streets out on to a wharf constructed alongside the ferry landing, to give place to a brick building. This old house was the eighth building erected in the city of Portland, having been built in June, 1850, when the male voting population was only thirty five, and when most of the present site of the city was covered with a dense forest of timber. At that time it was the only house standing on the east side of Front street. The owners were Norton & Dennison, merchants, and the building contractors were Stephens & Harris, the latter now dead. The contractors got $5,000 for the job—worth now perhaps $1,500. Just as they got the frame partly up, an injunction, sued out of O. C. Pratt's court, was served upon them, the writ alleging that the ground upon which it was located was public property, having been, as claimed, dedicated by the proprietor of the town plat as a levee. Norton & Dennison had [illegible] the half block for $750, getting deeds from the several town proprietors. They defeated the injunction and paid the contractors $800 for the delay it had caused, and the house was completed in sixty days from the laying of the foundation. At that time there was a small log house in which Norton & Dennison kept a stock of goods—on the corner of Washington & Front, the site of Parrish's brick building. There was another small house (built of logs, if we mistake not,) somewhere near the corner of Morrison street, owned by the Carters. In the rear of Norton & Dennison's house—the landmark in question—they built a wharf for a steamship landing. As there were no such things in those days as pile drivers here, they sank log cribs loaded with stone ballast for a foundation. Afterward these cribs were torn away, the ballast being left, thus forming the bluff bank, a few feet out from low water mark, over which so many horses have been driven from time to time, since, and drowned. The block bounded by Front, Washington, First and Stark streets could have been bought for only a few hundred dollars, and it went begging in the market for some time. The old "landmark" building, constructed of hewn timber and the coarsest of fir lumber, is still sound, and apparently able to serve a good purpose for many years. When it was erected it was the largest and finest building in the city.

GARROTERS ON THE WAR PATH.—The great number of petty thefts committed in the city attests the presence of a great number of hard up thieves, but that class of rogues are not, by far, the most dangerous class of bad men among us. There are men who prowl around the streets ready for any desperate enterprise, and who are dangerous to the safety of unarmed men or women who may have occasion to be out late at night. On Thursday evening a gentleman who rooms on Pine street, when going home was followed on First street from near the Oro Fino Theater to the corner of Second and Pine, by a suspicious looking customer. At that point, the gentleman was accosted by the fellow who was following him, and asked for a match. The gentleman replied that he had no match, and warned the fellow that if he did not leave, he might get a bullet through him. At this the fellow gave a peculiar whistle when a confederate immediately started from the other side of the street and came over quickly. The gentleman having no weapon, ran, and was followed by both the fellows. They chased him very closely, following even to the porch of the house in which the gentleman roomed; but he got into the house and locked the door, thus failing the garroters of their game. It would be well for people who have occasion to be out late, to go ready for such customers, and to give them promptly a lesson in the art of self-defence.

TESTIMONIAL.—By accidental oversight the following "card" was omitted yesterday morning: "We the undersigned, passengers on the steamship Oriflamme on her late trip from San Francisco to Portland, wish to tender to the Captain and to her other officers and crew our thanks for their courtesy and untiring vigilance during the heavy gale of 7 hours which we experienced, as to such vigilance and their excellent seamanship we undoubtedly owe our lives and those of our wives and children: R. J. Ladd, D. J. De Long, W. Zipler, A. Zipler, R. Fenton, C. H. Humphreys, E. J. Lewis, Osgood Dunham, Jos. Stewart, W. J. McConnel, J. R. Sullivan, O. S. Georges, Chas. Bolles, S. R. Walker, W. A. Runkle, S. B. Brown, S. B. Biddle, Jonathan Moore, D. C. Atkins, S. G. Skidmore, W. B. Temple, A. H. Blakesley, Benj. Levy, W. Madden, J. S. Kinsey, S. J. Hensley, Jr., J. G. Wright, Capt. Sladden, John Monroe and 50 others."

PRETTY NEAR CORRECT.—The Sacramento Union says: "The old steamer, Senator, that began running on the Sacramento river early in 1851, struck a rock, on the 30th ultimo, at the head of Ross Island, Oregon, and sunk in eight feet of water." With a few trifling exceptions this item is correct: The Senator—our Senator—did not begin running on the Sacramento river in 1851, or at any other time, and she didn't strike a rock at the head of Ross Island. She was built in Oregon, on the banks of the Wallamet river, about 1863, and never had the honor of being a second-hand boat from California.

MRS. MILLER SPEAKS.—We left the Theater Thursday evening before Mrs. Duniway concluded her speech, and was not aware of the fact that Mrs. M. M. Miller, being called for, made a short address. Our cotemporary of the Bulletin, who did not speak very favorably of her first effort, gives her credit in this case for acquitting herself well. It says: "From the manner in which Mrs. Miller spoke last evening we are satisfied that with a little study, a few lessons in elocution, and a dismissal of her stage fright (which will disappear after she has spoken a few times), she will make her mark on the lecture stage."

LAND PATENT TO THE COUCH CLAIM.—This document, which was issued from the United States Land Office, November 13th, 1871, has been filed for record in the County Clerk's office of Multnomah county. It is signed by President Grant, J. Parrish, Secretary, and C. B. Boynton, Recorder of the Land Office. It gives title to 640 acres of land in sections 27, 28, 33 and 34, in township 1 north, range 1 east—one half to the widow of John H. Couch and the other half to the heirs of the deceased claimant.

MAN KILLED AT KALAMA.—Mr. Dan. Holton of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, received the following dispatch from Kalama, last evening:

"Do you know of any friends of Booth, and their address? He was killed to-day in a run off. Send names to me by telegraph."

(Signed) THOS. B. MORRIS.

It is said Booth was well known in this city. The manner of killing is supposed—though not clearly stated—to have been by an engine or car running off the track.

EARTH SLIDE.—The people along Fourth street missed the familiar rumble and whistle of the locomotive John H. Couch, for three or four days this week, without being able to divine the cause. We learn that a heavy slide of earth occurred at one of the deep cuts on the mountain side while the engine was beyond it, and it had to wait till the earth could be removed from the track.

IN A BAD FIX.—The Oregon City Enterprise says: "The Senator has been hauled out of the way of the drift wood which is flowing in the river, and is in a safe place to keep her from being knocked to pieces. She is badly damaged, and the probabilities are that she will prove a total loss. The water is about twelve feet deep in her."

BALL TICKETS.—Tickets for the Grand Christmas Eve ball, to be given by Baker Post G. A. R., may be obtained of any member of the Committee of Arrangements—Messrs. W. C. Hitchcock, Jos. Legrand, J. B. Reynolds, C. E. Du Bois, C. P. Crandell, E. Ross, John E. Green.

FINED FOR CHEATING IN WEIGHTS.—The motion for a new trial in the case of the State vs. Jacob Davis, convicted of gross fraud in weighing produce, was denied by Judge Upton yesterday and the defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, or in default to go to jail.

IMPORTANT ARRIVAL.—Three more witnesses to be examined in the Caruthers' estate suits arrived by the late steamer. If all these witnesses conclude to stay here, the trial is likely to do a great deal toward populating the State. In that event, let it go on.

MILITARY.—The roll of the militia of this county has been completed, ready for transmission to the State authorities.

FOR SAN FRANCISCO.—The steamship Oriflamme will sail for San Francisco at 4 P. M. to-day.

Preparations are pretty generally in progress for a proper celebration of Christmas.

The rapid current in the Wallamet was muchly troublesome to the ferryboat yesterday.

The recent stormy weather has nearly put a stop to all business enterprises in this city.

Stealing of all sorts of things in all sorts of places, in this city, is going on right lively.

Miss Curtis went to Salem to effect an engagement to skate, but gave it up and came back.

There will be another rehearsal next Friday evening at half-past 7 o'clock, and it is desired that every member shall be present.

REVIEW.—Colonel Bell with his staff reviewed and inspected the Washington Guard at their armory last evening. We did not have the pleasure of witnessing the affair, but we know the boys are always ready for any emergency of that kind, and we can confidently assume that they were pronounced all right.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

PUBLIC SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Richardson will sell to-day (Administrator's sale) at 2 o'clock P. M. at the Court House door, a choice city lot very desirably located, being lot 6 in block 221, in the tier of blocks fronting on west side of Park street.

A s S. L. Stone is closing out at cost his fancy goods, toys and willow ware, this is the best chance to buy cheap.

I say, mister, where is the Postoffice? Why, it is next door to S. L. Stone's cigar and tobacco store.

Kris Kringle's headquarters is at S. L. Stone's, next door to the Postoffice.

WORK of every description in the house finishing line will be done at short notice to the best of satisfaction.
PAUL RICHTER.

In the New York Herald we observe an advertisement to the effect that a whole Funeral can be had for $25. Well, that is decidedly cheap; but think of selling suits of Clothing at $18. It is done every day at Kohn & Fishel's, 91 Front street, where they not only sell suits cheap, but it is so in everything they offer to the public.

IT IS AN ESTABLISHED FACT that S. L. STONE sells articles in his line at lower figures than any other house in town. His stock of Watches, Clocks, Silverware, Spectacles is complete. Those buying can easily be suited. Remember the place—Front street, between Morrison and Alder.

THE GRAND DUKE ALEXIS has signified his intention of coming as far west as San Francisco. He will not be able to visit Portland, but he has given orders to J. O'Neil & Co. for a suit of clothes, as he is well aware that at that establishment can be had the best fitting, most stylish, and to cap the climax the cheapest suits to be obtained in this city. Not only have they excellent clothing but they have a full stock of Star Shirts, new ties, undershirts, drawers and the famous Quaseco Umbrella. It is unnecessary to say more. Go to O'Neil & Co's, 95 First street, and rest assured you will be pleased with what you see.

Attention, Washington Guard, Co. A.—You are notified to appear at your Armory on Friday evening, 8th inst., at 7½ o'clock, in Full Uniform, for Inspection. By order of Brig. Gen'l.

TESTIMONIAL.

We the undersigned having been the recipients of the services of Mrs. M. C. White in teaching the science of Music on the Pianoforte, take pleasure in giving a hearty testimonial that we have employed her in our families as a teacher of her "New Method of Instruction," and that it has proven superior to any method we have ever known. And that although the first cost may be a trifle greater than some others, we believe it to be in the aggregate much cheaper, beside being a great economy in point of time. We, therefore, take pleasure in recommending her to the patronage of all who may be desirous of obtaining a musical education, as a very superior instructor.

To those who desire to know more about it before increasing any expense, we give a cordial invitation to call at our homes and interview her pupils.

Winter Wisdom.

Warm clothing alone will not protect the body against the consequences of the sudden depression of temperature which is concomitant of early winter. Flannel next the skin preserves the animal heat, but it does not impart animal vigor. That property is the special prerogative of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which is therefore a specific protection against a majority of the complaints which are most common at this season. For example, a course of the great vegetable invigorant, commenced now, will be almost sure to preclude chills and fever, bilious colic, disorders of the stomach, constipation and many other complaints which are often the direct or indirect effect of an atmosphere surcharged with cold, unwholesome vapor. Moreover, the system toned and regulated by this means is much more likely to resist pulmonary disease than it would otherwise be; for the influence of searching medicine pervades all the organs, and every fiber and tissue of the frame. Persons whose vital powers are weak, especially invalid ladies and the aged, are earnestly recommended not to face the winter's rigor without having recourse to this safe and sufficient means of re-enforcing enfeebled nature. Much suffering may be escaped, much danger averted by following this council. "Better late than never," is a good proverb, but it is better to be early than late.

NEW YORK
LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY!
PURELY MUTUAL!
ASSETS.................................$17,000,000!
ISSUED 9,025 POLICIES IN 1870
Insuring Over $27,000,000!

WM. H. BEERS, Vice President and Actuary. MORRIS FRANKLIN, President.

AMONG THE ADVANTAGES OFFERED BY THE NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY are:—

1st. PURE MUTUALITY, so that the entire surplus earnings over the actual cost of insurance is returned to the policy holders who are the only members.

2d. AGE, having been organized in 1845. It has the benefit of the experience of a quarter of a century, and members are thus guaranteed from all doubtful experiment in the method of conducting its business.

3d. STABILITY AND PERPETUITY shown by the accumulation of a capital of Seventeen Millions of Dollars, after paying all losses promptly, and returning large dividends to its members. It has now an income of over Seven Millions of Dollars, and the interest on its investments, with premium on gold, &c., has been sufficient during the past two years to pay accruing losses.

4th. NON-FORFEITURE OF POLICIES. It originated the system of non-forfeiture of policies, and to it the public are indebted for a feature so favorable to the insured.

5th. SUICIDE does not cause a forfeiture of the policy, that being considered an evidence of insanity, and insanity the result of disease.

6th. DIVIDENDS. Its dividends are declared annually, and are available immediately as cash in payment of premiums. Many companies declare their premiums annually, but do not pay them till several years thereafter; others defer their declarations for two, three or four years from the time the policy commences. In this Company a party always has a dividend which can be used in the payment of the second and all subsequent annual premiums.

7th. ITS DIVIDEND SYSTEM is the "Contribution Plan," by which each member is charged with the exact cost of his insurance, and receives back his surplus payments. These dividends can remain with the Company, participating in its earnings, and be used at any subsequent period in the payment of premiums.

8th. LIBERALITY IN SETTLEMENT OF LOSSES. Experience has shown that cases arise where policies, although EQUITABLY claims, are not LEGALLY so. The records of this Company bear many acknowledgements from widows and relatives of deceased members of its liberality and fairness in settlement of all such losses. There being no stockholders in the Company to share its profits, interests adverse to policy-holders cannot possibly arise, the Trustees simply occupying the position of arbitrators between the members, with no inducement to take from one and give to another.

Strict Construction.

The Cincinnati Gazette in an article on the Ku Klux gives this paragraph:

Jefferson, whom the Democracy hold up as the pattern stickler for a strict construction of the Constitution, wanted to have the habeas corpus suspended over the whole country, after the little band in the Burr expedition had dispersed, in order that he might try some citizens that he had seized in the presence of the courts by martial law; yet, when a thoroughly organized and armed rebel army so extensive that in a single county it can in twenty-four hours call out a thousand mounted riflemen, has overthrown all law and all security of person and property in one section of the country, the Democratic party unitedly join in the cry that the suspension of habeas corpus there is the subversion of the Constitution. This is not reason, nor a care for the Constitution, but it is the acceptance of this conspiracy by the leaders of the Democratic party as their means for securing the control of the Southern States.

The Eastern Coffee market depends to a great extent upon the Brazilian market, and prices on this coast depend very much upon prices East, for prices here cannot advance higher than will admit of shipments to [illegible] a mode to St. Louis and other Western cities. The last advices from Rio Janeiro received in New York is to October 25th, from which we extract the following, as it contains information bearing upon the Coffee market:

Sales of Coffee from Oct. 9th, 1871, to Oct. 25th, amount to 92,000 bags, of which 67,000 were for the United States, 15,000 for the Channel and North, and 11,000 for the South of Europe, and 4,000 for elsewhere. Stock on the 9th inst. 90,000 bags. Receipts since (or 5,700 bags daily average) 82,000 bags. Sales since 9th inst. 92,000 bags. Stock to-day, 80,000 bags. Supplies since the 7th inst have averaged about 5,700 bags per day, and the article has advanced 200@400 rs. [illegible] arrobe in value. The stock is now about 80,000 bags, but it is stated by some to be 90,000. It is now the general conviction that our present crop is very small, and upon this point all seem to agree. The opinion is that the force of the scarcity will begin to be felt towards the end of November, and as we advance further in the crop season, this scarcity will no doubt be felt much more. Very competent authorities say that they expect very small receipts from November to June next—we can consequently look only for higher prices here, and dealers are laying in their stocks now at our quotations in anticipation of same.

Mail advices from New [illegible] just to hand state the demand for Sperm [illegible] good at the advanced price of $1 [illegible] gallon, while the [illegible] for Whale Oil was only [illegible]. Sales were made [illegible] at 80 [illegible] 75 cents; Humpback, do. [illegible] per gallon. The imports of Oil into the United States from January 1st, 1871, to November 20th, amount to 40,458 bbls Sperm, against 55,267 bbls for the like period of last year; of Whale Oil, 75,023 against 74,050 bbls last year. The exports from the United States, from January 1st to November 20th, amount to 19,239 bbls Sperm, against 15,602 bbls last year; of Whale, 18,141 bbls against 9,762 bbls. The above statistics of imports and exports, taken in connection with the destruction of the whaling fleet, would indicate higher prices ruling next year than are now ruling, even at the present advance.

Private advices from Fort Bragg [illegible] report a dull market with [illegible] more or less nominal for Oat Seats. This is the result of a large increased importation from the East, and also that the bulk of trade in the interior of California is supplied from March and April of next year. Our Eastern exchanges report prices in New York and elsewhere tending down in consequence of more offering and fewer export buyers. This is as it should be, for a high market to rule during the Spring and Summer months of next year, as the Continent and Great Britain will take more than they have at any time during the present year. An authority of great repute in England, under date of Nov. 4th, says: Meat is rather cheaper, or I should say not so dear. The supply of food for the Winter will be large, but "stores," or lean stock are purchased so dearly that meat must be at a high price during the Winter months. Dairy produce is cheaper and the price of Bacon has declined considerably of late. There seems to be very little prospect of Meat once more becoming cheap, for the consumption of the country, owing to the activity of trade, is so great that it is difficult to procure a supply in excess of the demand. The market for Meats in Great Britain ruling higher during this Winter will result in creating a greater demand for Cured Meats than heretofore, to meet which supplies will be drawn from the Eastern States.

Several of our Eastern exchanges favor curing Meats by the ice process, instead of confining the business mainly to Winter curing, in order to be profitable and to avoid the great expense and risk of holding large stocks of Winter cured for Summer use. The result of last season's packing was such as we should think would cause the ice process to be adopted very generally in the Eastern States, which, when adopted, will cause more uniform prices to rule during the entire year.

Produce Market.

WHEAT—Receipts again light, owing to the lack of [illegible] to take it off. The market is quiet, with no change to note. San Francisco [illegible] of Dec. [illegible] quote Liverpool market at 12s 0d. We quote market at shippers' offering, $2 15@2 20 ℔ cental.

FLOUR—Receipts are free, owing to a great extent to the steamer Oriflamme being up for San Francisco. We quote [illegible] for extra or standard brands at $7 25 ℔ bbl; country, $7; superfine, and outside brands of extra, $6 25@6 50 ℔ bbl.

POTATOES—The market is likely to be overstocked. We have advices of about 1,500 sacks afloat, with 2,500 [illegible] Humboldt Bay and from 1,000 to 2,000 [illegible]. We have no change to note in prices since yesterday.

General Merchandise.

PETROLEUM—Since the first of January, 1871, the total exports from Philadelphia have amounted to 49,203,850 gallons, against 43,858,337 gallons for the corresponding period in 1870. The exports from New York since January 1, were about 84,000,000 gallons. The stock of petroleum in London, at latest mail dates, was 25,[illegible] bbls, against 20,425 bbls for the corresponding time last year. There are nineteen vessels now loading at Philadelphia with 63,300 bbls for the various European ports.

MACKEREL—The Cape Ann Advertiser says that the stock of Bay and Shore in first hands is very light for the season, not exceeding 12,000 bbls. In view of this holders are not anxious to sell [illegible] at the present prices and the market may be quoted very firm.

SPICES—The New York market is less firm for Pepper, with prices shaded.

TIN—Cable advices received at New York from Liverpool, Nov. 21st, give still further advances in Pig, quoting [illegible] and in cons[illegible] the New York market is firmer with higher prices demanded by holders. These advices to [illegible] cause our market to advance still further, and as large quantities are used by the Salmon [illegible] affect prices of [illegible] fish if the market [illegible] up.

HARDWARE—The advance in New York on Tin and Sheet Iron wares was 10 ℔ ct. but with this additional advance prices will be marked up again probably another 10 [illegible]. This advance in Tin and Iron must affect the English market for wares made of them, which will cause the prices on this coast to be marked up.

IRON—The English advices received at New York by Cable quote refined bar 5@10s higher.

CANDLES—The prices for Adamantine in Cincinnati and New York were marked up 1c ℔ lb, which must affect Eastern brands in this market ere long.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary.

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhoea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

DR. GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe, and has resumed practice at his Dispensary, 623 Kearny street, corner of Commercial, San Francisco, where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him.

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking out new remedies, and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, sad and disfigured faces and their [illegible] disqualifying them for the happiness of [illegible] or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation they [illegible] and suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, [illegible] that they are cared for and cured before it is too late, [illegible] them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician [illegible] made private diseases his specialty [illegible] years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important for those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the [illegible] pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their [illegible] of curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse, [illegible] solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence [illegible] by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited [illegible] producing, with unerring certainty the following [illegible] of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallowness of countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, [illegible] the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, [illegible] about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, [illegible] pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, [illegible] monomania and frequent insanity. [illegible] relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by any of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are under any of these fearful maladies, should not [illegible] sacred responsibility resting upon them nor [illegible] obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give [illegible] patients written [illegible] radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, time, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from [illegible] curiosity, to any part of the country, with full directions. By inclosing Ten Dollars in a letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co., a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and [illegible] who, with bogus sworn-to certificates dupe the [illegible] Some of the self-styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are [illegible] and lazy to work at their trades [illegible] makers, newspaper carriers, [illegible] office boys, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Certificates [illegible] their former occupations [illegible] look at the [illegible] for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid [illegible] to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing, [illegible] you many regrets; for [illegible] cases out of ten are bogus [illegible] any of them until [illegible] and what Dr. Gibbon does not [illegible] exhibiting titles, certificates, [illegible] letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will safely [illegible] may call at his [illegible] his ability to treat [illegible] proposes to cure.
